Court Room Behavior

The court expects your respect and courtesy at all times.

- Acknowledge the Judge or Justice the Peace by bowing when entering and exiting the court. When the Judge or Justice the Peace enters courtroom please stand.
- Dress with respect, so please wear proper attire and remove your sunglasses and all hats other than religious head coverings.
- When your name is called stand at the front, in the centre aisle. Do not go through the gates unless instructed to. Take your hands out of your pockets.
- Do not stand near the door. If you must stand, move to a side wall to keep the entrance clear.
- Silence is required so as not to hamper the court proceedings or recordings. Therefore all cell phones, pagers, alarms, or any other electronic device that may make a noise must be turned off. No talking, food, drinks, gum, newspapers or magazines, etc. Children making any sounds must be removed from the court room.
- Cameras, recording devices or photo phones are not permitted.

- Can I leave once I'm in court? Do not make noise, enter or leave the courtroom while the judge is speaking. You may quietly enter and leave the court room while court is in session.

Where do I go if I am a witness?

If you are a witness you should go to the court room and let the clerk or crown know you are here. The Salvation Army Chaplain can help you if you are uncertain. Depending on the nature of the charges the Victim/Witness Assistance staff may be able to assist.

What Happens After Court?

If told to “wait for papers”, remain in the waiting area by the elevators until your name is called, and then go to the Inquiries window or wicket 15. This is going to take time so be prepared to wait. Do not leave the court house unless given permission.

If you are an adult and told to arrange for a “Pre-Sentence Report” go to the Probation Office to arrange an appointment. They are located on the 4th floor. Generally there is a Probation Officer on duty at the courthouse.

I Need to Talk to a Judge or Justice of the Peace

In the court room you may not speak to the Judge or Justice of the Peace unless they give you permission. (Judges wear a black robe with a red sash or the Justice of the Peace wears a black robe with and a green sash).

Forcing a conversation will result in you being removed from the court room. It would be best to check with the clerk's office or Duty Counsel to clarify what you should do.

An accused person or their family/friends may not speak to a Judge outside of court, but they may speak to a Justice of the Peace by visiting their office to the left of the elevators.

I Need to speak to a Crown Attorney

- Due to conflict of interest, the potential of becoming a witness by hearing accused inadvertently provide details of a crime and other legal reasons the Crown is limited to speaking to Defense or Duty Counsel and not directly to the accused or their family.
- It is best to have Duty Counsel or a private lawyer facilitate communication with the Crown.
